PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

SAVANNAH STATE COLLEGE
A UNIT OF THE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM OF GEORGIA
SAVANNAH, GEORGIA 31404

OFFICE OF
THE PRESIDENT

October 28, 1982

Dear Students, Faculty, Staff and Friends:

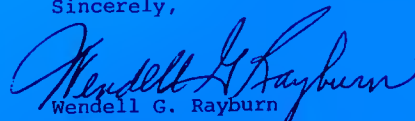

This year's "Tiger" promises to be the best yearbook in the history of the College. The College began this academic year with five new baccalaureate programs, two new buildings, and a vastly improved physical plant. Our enrollment has stabilized and the faculty, staff and students are generating a positive enthusiasm for building the future at the College.

Remember - Savannah State is your College - nurture it, preserve it, and make it even greater.

May you realize your fondest memories as you gaze through the pages of the 1983 "Tiger."

"We Hail Thee SSC."

Sincerely,

Wendell G. Rayburn
President

This year the choir will tour these cities around the United States, Atlanta, Georgia, Indianapolis, Ind., Chicago, Ill., New York City, Mt. Kisco, New York, Philadelphia, PA., Washington, D.C. and Columbia, S.C.

While on Tour the group will present Concerts for several of the Savannah State College Alumni Chapters.

32nd Southern Regional Press Institute

Savannah State College held its 32nd Southern Regional Press Institute on March 3-4, 1983 at the Downtowner Motor Inn. The two-day mass communications conference featured workshops in newswriting, newspaper production, yearbook production, photography, and the literary magazine. Over 35 yearbooks, newspaper, and literary magazines entered the 32nd Publications Contest of the Press Institute.

William E. Porter, chairman of the department of mass communications at the University of Michigan, delivered the keynote address on March 3 at 9:20 a.m. and Les Payne, the national editor of Newsday in Long Island, New York, delivered the Awards Banquet address on March 4, at 1 p.m.

Porter is a native of Chetopa, Kansas, received his B.A. degree from the University of Alabama. He has published over 50 articles and short stories, several books, and over 15 articles in scholarly journals and books. He has taught at several universities and was a Fulbright lecturer at the University of Rome in Italy.

Payne, a native of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, grew up in Hartford Connecticut and received his B.A. degree from the University of Connecticut. Payne, co-authored the 1974 Pulitzer Prize-winning series, "The Heroin Trail." He has reported extensively for Newsday from Africa, the Caribbean, and the United Nations.

He received the 1978 Toben Kin Prize from Columbia University and the Sigma Delta Chi Award among others.

High schools, Junior colleges, and senior colleges from a six state area participated in this year's program. Locally, S.M. Tompkins, A.E. Beach, Sol. Johnson, and Robert Groves high schools participated. Grambling State University, Tennessee State University, Augusta College, West Georgia College, Macon Junior College, Abraham Baldwin, and Florida Southern College are some of the colleges and junior colleges that registered for this year's series of workshops.

The workshops featured over fifteen consultants from nationally known newspapers, local media and the department of humanities and fine arts at Savannah State College. Some of the highlights of the conference were demonstrations of the Kodak Ektaflex Color Print Maker, the first literary magazine workshop, and the actual newswriting done by the student journalists.

Four major awards were presented at the Press Institute. Charles Teel of Kem Distributing Company received the Distinguished Service Plaque; William Porter received the Meritorius Service in Journalism Award; Les Payne received the 9th Robert S. Abbott Award; and Mrs. Louis Owens received the third Wilton C. Scott Scholastic Journalism Award

Dr. Charles J. Elmore, assistant to the president and director of public relations at SSC, directed the Press Institute.

SSC Joined Elderhostel

Savannah State College has joined the Elderhostel network and is hosted its first sessions during the 1982-83 academic school year.

Christine E. Oliver, associate professor of fine arts, has been named co-ordinator of the college's program.

Elderhostel is a non-profit education program for older adults. It is incorporated in Massachusetts and the network consist of more than 500 colleges and universities in 50 states and Canada. It serves more than 45,000 participants nationwide.

Savannah State College had a group of 40 to 45 participants for each of its four one-week sessions. These participants were housed on campus and took their meals with other campus students.

Liberal arts courses were offered on a non-credit basis with no homework or testing. At the start of the 1982 fall session, Georgia was the first state to offer Elderhostel sessions year around.

Sessions at SSC were scheduled for Oct. 3-19 and Oct. 10-16; Dec. 5-11; and March 6-12, 1983.

Courses included: Survey of American Painting I and II; Fitness for Everyone; Know Your Right—Legal That Is!; Writing and Sharing Poetry; Literature and Personal Experience; Managing Money; and Hypertension and Cardiovascular Drugs.

There were numerous field trips and a special tour of Historic Savannah and the Telfair Academy of Arts and Sciences.

SSC Hosts Lecturers On PHOTODOCUMENTATION

To study culture means to watch, look and absorb, in many different ways, what people do and how they do it, said a Washington, D.C. Cultural Historian at SSC.

Dr. Berniece Reagon, Director of the Program in Black American Culture at the Smithsonian Institute told SSC's faculty and students at the October 12th Humanoria that "Culture tells you who you are." The primary function of documentary photography is to inform and educate, an internationally acclaimed photographer said at SSC.

Roland Freeman, speaking in the Kennedy Fine Arts Center, said the legacy of style which connects and reinforces our present and past is the stabilizing element of the African-American experience.

"The roots of many black urban traditions in the United State are planted in the fertile folk soil of our rural experiences," Freeman said.

These two lecturers have truly enlightened the SSC Family. All who had the privilege to attend enjoyed this learning experience.

*I have to live with myself, and so
I want to be fit for myself to know
I Want to be able as days go by
Always to look myself in the eye.
I don't want to stand with the setting sun,
And hate myself for the things I've done
I don't want to keep on the closed shelf
A lot of secrets about myself
And fool myself as I come and go
Into thinking nobody else will know
The kind of person I really am.
I don't want to dress myself up in sham.
I never can hide myself from me
I see what others will never see
I know what others will never know
I never can fool myself, and so
Whatever happens I want to be

Tigerettes Upset Clark

The Savannah State Tigers pulled out to lead by as much as 12 points late in the game and fought off a furious rally by Clark College for a 62-59 upset of the conference leading Lady Panthers Monday night in the SSC gym.

SSC trailed 29-27 at the half, but came back to pull up the upset as the Tigerettes gained momentum for their conference tournament.

Felicia Ashley, a former Savannah High player, led SSC with 14 points, and Roberta Francis and Shirley Boyd, also a former SHS player, hit for 12 apiece.

Patty Miller led the team in rebounding with 11, and Boyd pulled 10 rebounds for SSC.

As a team, the Tigerettes outrebounded the Lady Panthers 47 to 37.

Devonia Green led Clark College in scoring with 22 points and Thelma Bogues added 20.

The victory improves SSC's record to 9-10, and the Tigerettes will try to reach the .500 mark when they host Albany State Thursday night at 6:30.

SSC's conference tournament will be Feb. 24 at Fort Valley State.

Tiger Defense Pleases Ellis; Passing Performance Weak

By MARK KELLY
Staff Writer

Savannah State football coach Frank Ellis reflected on his team's 17-0 win over Morehouse last Saturday and came up with several bright spots and a depressing low point.

The aspect of he liked most was defense. The Tigers scored a shutout and pressured the Maroon Tigers quarterbacks all night long. And, "with our backs against the wall, the defense stopped Morehouse inside the 10-yard line," Ellis said. "I liked that."

What Ellis didn't like was the way one part of his offense performed, primarily the lack of a passing attack. "Zero-for-nine looks like baseball," Ellis said. "That doesn't sound too bad, but when you look at the films and see we dropped three or four."

"We still have to work on the passing, though. We can't depend on our running game all the time."

Knowing the kind of offense Morehouse would run actually helped Savannah State Saturday. Ellis and his staff knew the Maroon Tigers liked to throw long in hopes of getting the quick score. The coordination between the backs, linebackers and linemen worked well and SSC minus 20 yards in sacks and intercepted four passes.

"We mixed up the coverages a lot and put pressure on the quarterbacks," Ellis said. "We'd disguise our man-to-man and make it appear like a zone. I can't say enough about the way our coaches have helped to make this team work together."

Morehouse did drive into SSC territory twice. In the third period the Maroon Tigers had a first-and-goal at the 5. After four downs, Morehouse had lost five yards and gave the ball up on downs.

Later in the third period, Morehouse again had a first-and-10 at the 13. On a fourth-and-three at the 5, Hewitt Dixon fumbled and lost six yards ending the scoring threat.

Ellis had known throughout the season his defense will carry him a lot further than his offense. Even with a talented offensive line and hard-running backs, the Tigers have problems, at quarterback, where Tony Richardson has not produced.

"We are going to work hard on our passing game this week," Ellis said. "If we had a passing game, it would be all the better. As it is now, people are going to start stacking the line on us."

"We started throwing the ball a few times, it still let Morehouse know we would throw it some."

The pass protection for Richardson held up well Saturday night. When the pressure was there, Richardson usually ran off to his right or left or stepped up too far in the pocket.

"I can see a bad pass here or there," Ellis said. "But he got unsteady in there and started to step up in the pocket. The linemen see him move to the right or left and that doesn't help."

Of course Ellis would like to have a controlled passing game, with running routes five to 10 yards to take passes.

"It's really nice to see those kinds of passes," Ellis said. "I've been stressing dumping passes off to the back, but it hasn't worked. I know that working with that type of attack can eat up six or seven minutes."

"When my team scores quickly, it makes me nervous because that's just another chance for their offense."

Fort Valley Ends SSC Home Streak

By BILL PENNINGTON

Fort Valley State coach James Patrick used basically the same type of defense on the Savannah State Tigers he had employed in the regular season meetings Thursday night. But, he made one alteration and it paid off in grand style.

The Wildcats upset Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference host Savannah State in the opening round of the tournament, 80-72, to halt the Tigers' two-year winning streak at Wiley-Wilcox gymnasium.

"Definitely, the key was our defense," said an elated Patrick. "We played a 1-2-2 zone just like we did in our first two meetings this year (both SSC wins), but I made one switch. Before I had a little man out front. This time I put a 6-8 guy (Rodney Freeman) out there. So, instead of shooting over a little guy, they had a big man to worry about. It also helped us cut off on some of their wing shots, where they usually shoot so well."

Freeman scored 21 points, mostly off tips and layups, grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds and blocked three shots.

"The big guy out there hurt us," said Tiger Coach Russell Ellington, "and we couldn't get the ball down low. With him out there, it opened it up inside for us but they wouldn't get it down in there. Unless you get it inside, you aren't going to be going to the line enough."

While the Tigers made 29 field goals to 27 for Fort Valley, the Wildcats made 26-of-34 free throws to 14-of-23 for Savannah State.

Fort Valley's win sets up a matchup with Clark College in tonight's second semifinal game at 9 p.m. Clark, 20-8, defeated Morehouse 92-70 earlier Thursday. The other semifinal at 7 has Albany State playing Tuskegee. Albany advanced by downing Morris Brown 87-74 and Tuskegee beat Benedict 59-45.

Savannah State, which finished the season 18-8, ran its way to a 21-14 lead with 11 minutes to play in the first half. But, when the Wildcats began stopping the fast break, the Tigers' shooting went cold and Fort Valley's inside game started working successfully. Eight points by freshman Tony Hall over the next two minutes and an 18-foot jumper by Freddie Gibson gave the Wildcats a 24-23 advantage.

They never trailed again.

Hall had 19 points for the game on 7-of-10 shooting from the field and five-of-five from the line. Gibson had 12 points and point guard Anthony Roach had 14 points for Fort Valley.

During the final 11 minutes of the half, Fort Valley, 17-11, outscored the Tigers 24-9 to take a 38-30 lead to the dressing room.

Savannah State Splits With Coastal Carolina

Mal Brunner tripled in the tying run, then scored the winner on Tyrone Williams' sacrifice fly to give Savannah State a 5-4 victory over Coastal Carolina for a split of a doubleheader Thursday afternoon. Coastal Carolina won the first game, 4-0.

Neither team did much hitting in the doubleheader, as SSC totaled just seven hits and Coastal Carolina 10, but the Tigers got what they needed in the second game.

With the Chanticleers, 4-2-1 and ranked 12th in the NAIA, leading 4-3 through six innings, Brunner lofted a towering triple that scored Roderick Robinson with one out in the bottom of the seventh. Williams then floated a fly ball deep enough to bring home Brunner.

Anthony Oliver went the distance for SSC, giving up just three hits to pick up the win.

In the first game, loser Tyrone Tate pitched 5½ innings and surrendered three runs before giving way to Algin Merritt, who allowed one run in 1½ innings of relief work.

Savannah State, 1-1, hosts Methodist College in a doubleheader Saturday at 12:30 p.m.

Turner Joins Tigers

By MARK KELLY
Staff Writer

His knowledge of and interest in the game of football is vast. His ability to motivate players beyond their limits is known throughout the city of Savannah and the state of Georgia. Yet, following a 1980 season that saw his team reach the Region 3-AAAA finals before losing to Bradwell Institute, Joe Turner retired from his coaching position at Tompkins High School.

His reasons for leaving coaching at the time were simple:

"After 30 years of coaching it is time for someone else to take over."

The Greater Savannah Athletic Hall of Famer's decision to return to coaching at his alma mater was also based on basic needs, both his own and Savannah State's.

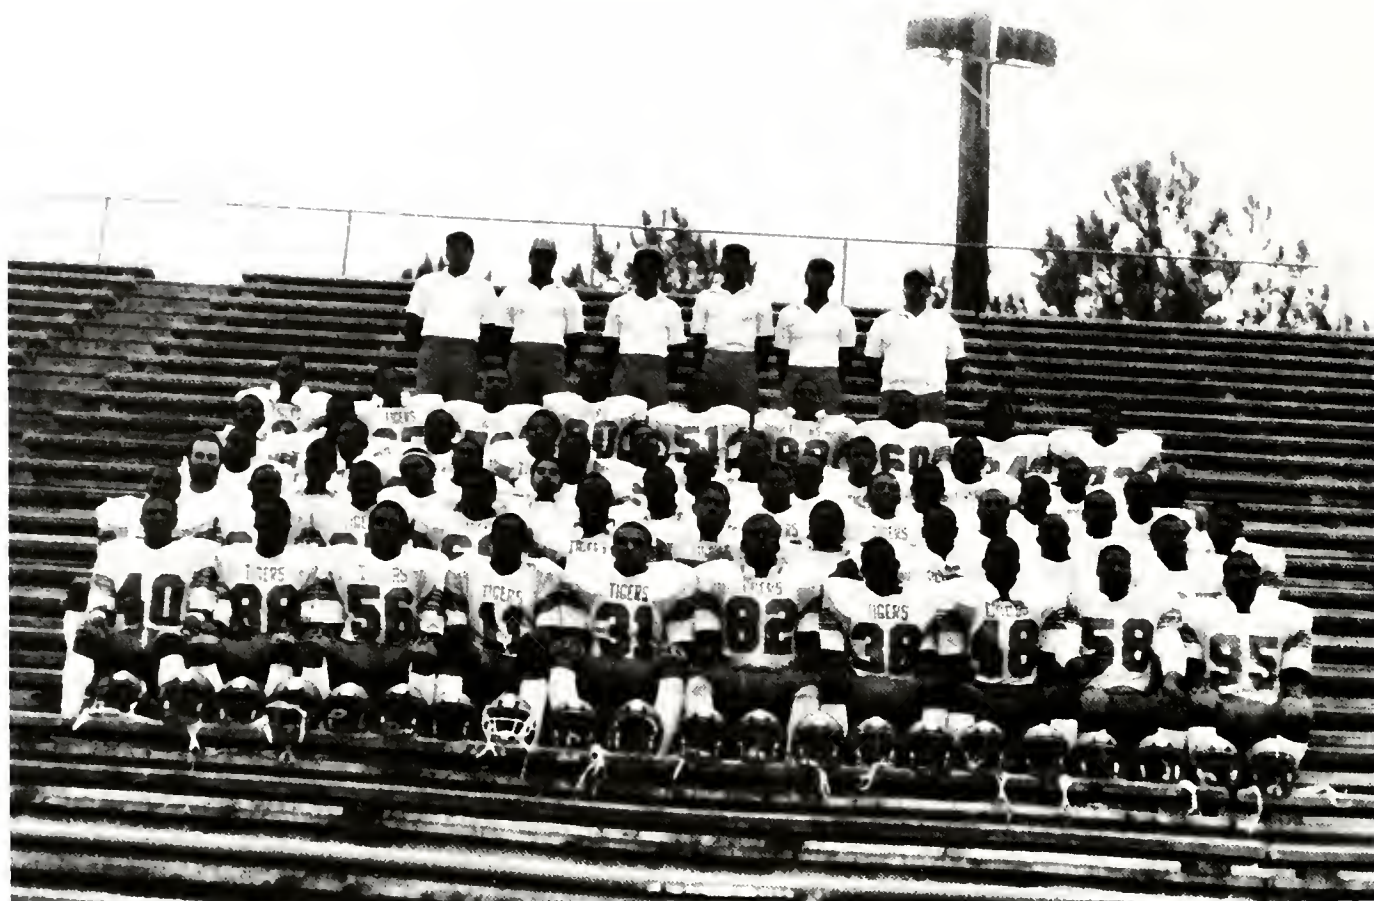

"I took a look at the program and what (head) coach Frank Ellis was trying to do and I decided to give it another shot," Turner said Saturday during the Tigers' press day. "I'd like to help get things on the level where Savan-

The most familiar face for the tigers is, All-American safety man, Cecil Newton, who two years ago, was tied for the nation's lead in interceptions with 11. He was equaled in 1980 only by Everson Walls who is now playing with the NFL Dallas Cowboys. A severe thigh injury caused Newton to be sidelined for the 1982 season, but he has completely healed and is in best shape of his career.

*Russell Ellington
Head Coach*

Russell Ellington Savannah State College Head Basketball Coach, is one of the best in the country. Ellington was all star athlete at Alfred Ely Beach High School in Savannah, Georgia. He was a varsity started for four years on the football and basketball teams at Morris Brown College. Coach Ellington has a fabulous 15 year tenure as head basketball coach at Beach High School. At Beach High he amassed five state championships, 487 career wins and only 42 losses.

He has entered his seventh year at the helm of the Savannah State Basketball Tigers. His first two years were building years. However his tiger squad has been SIAC Champions for the past 3 years. The Tigers posted a 21-9 record in 1979, a 26-3 record in 1980 and a 25-4 record in 1981. Ellington's team finished second in the NCAA Division III, South Regional Championship in '79 and first in '80 and '81. The 1980 edition of the SSC Tigers Basketball team was ranked seventh in the final NCAA Poll.

"I believe in hard work, diligence, intelligence and discipline. These are the Hallmarks of my coaching philosophy," stated coach Ellington. He believes that good defense is essential to a winning basketball team. Russell is a leader, a great coach, a motivator of young men. He has brought his life-long winning to SSC basketball! Ellington was named acting Athletic Director at SSC on January 4, 1982.

Charles Mackie A TIGER To Remember

Charles Mackie 6'4, 177 lb Forward/Center from Augusta Ga. played his last game for the Tiger basketball squad this year.

Ironically, Mackie did not enter college to play basketball. He came in pursuit of a degree in business. However, he was such a dominant figure on intramural basketball teams that he was persuaded to try out for the varsity basketball Squad.

His try out proved fruitful and he has been a varsity Tiger since.

During his career, Mackie played in 77 games, scored 150 field goals for a 57% average, scored 68 free throws for a 50% average and averaged 3.7 rebounds and 4.7 points per game.

In his senior and last season Mackie was at the top of his game. In 24 games he shot 57% from the floor hitting 73 of 126 shots, 41% from the line hitting 28 of 68, Pulled down 121 rebounds for a 5.0 rpg average and scored 174 points for a 7.2 ppg average.

Mackie was also an honor student throughout his career. His G.P.A. is above 3.00 and he is sure to graduate with honors. Farewell Charles Mackie. You'll always be a Tiger.

*Saralyn Truedell
Head Coach
Tigerettes*

Coach Saralyn Truedell, after her fifth season at the helm is beginning to see positive results of her hard work. Her 1982-83 season began with a bang but, injury and the loss of her top scorer took their toll. Eventhough, Truedell's Tigerettes finished with a respectable 10 and 13 season

Truedell had an outstanding career at Talladega College where she started for four years. So, winning is no stranger to her. Her philosophy is a strong defense and a running offense. This, in her opinion breeds success. One season without any unforeseeable misfortunes will certainly catapult her and the Tigerettes into the lime light.

Truedell is a winner and the attitude of her players reflect that same spirit.

*Joey Waller
Assistant*

Joey Waller has been an able Assistant to Coach Truedell for her entire Tenure at SSC. He has a keen sense of how basketball should be played and avails the team of that knowledge.

A former standout for the SSC Tigers, Joey senses the coming of a Dominant Tigerette Squad.

*John Myles
Head Coach*

John Myles is a very familiar face around the Savannah State College Campus. Many may remember his long tenure as head football Coach but, Coach Myles has two Conference Championships to his credit as head baseball Coach.

Coach Myles' baseball Tigers missed another Conference championship in 1982 on the last day of play and he is optimistic about the 1983 team. However, it will be tough for Coach to repeat his 1982 performance because of the increased toughness of the 1983 schedule.

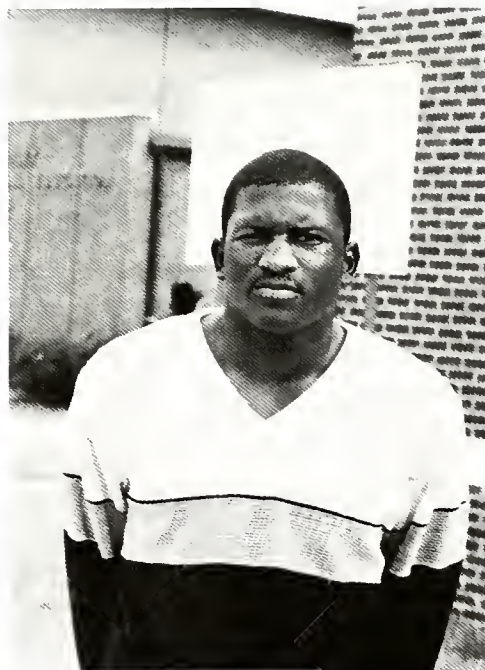

SSC has in Coach Myles the dedication to bring SSC baseball to the highest degree of success and he constantly strives to instill this same dedication in his ball players.

Savannah State College

1983-Baseball Prospectus-1983

Optimism is the word when it comes to the outlook for the 1983 Baseball Tigers of Savannah State College.

Coming off a 11-19 season in 1982, where the lineup consisted of usually six or seven freshman, and two or three upper classmen. We feel that we struggled to a good year, all things considered, but 1983 could be better.

Standouts returning this year include: Robert Jordan, catcher; Tyrone Tate, pitcher-infielder; Ron Mattox, infielder; Roderick Robinson, Darryl Rose, and Michael Jones, outfielders; Rick Nelson and Jeff Simmons, pitchers.

The pitching staff will be strengthened with the addition of newcomers Mal Brunner, Al Merritt, John Mills, Varden Williams, and Albert Miller. Ken Merritt plans to return to the squad after a year's hiatus. He will afford added assistance to the pitching corps, as well as the outfield.

Other promising prospects to be watched closely are: Chris Lawrence, catcher Tyrone Williams, infielder; Larry Adams and Marvin Stanley, infielders; and Terry Simmons, outfielder.

A more effective defensive style of play while maintaining an offensive balance will be the modus operandi of this seasons's activities.

Coach John Lincoln Mason

A WELL KNOWN TIGER

When thinking of Savannah State College Athletics, one can not help but think of John Lincoln Mason.

Coach Mason came to Savannah State in 1964 in the Division of Civil Engineering and has been in the service of the institution since.

When he became an assistant football coach, his engineering prowess was readily recognizable. He has functioned in numerous capacities as a football coach but, his forte is clearly defense.

Coach Mason has molded one of the finest defensive units in the history of the institution. He consistently has his defensive units at the head of the conference. Although SSC recently moved from NCAA Division III to NCAA Division II, the Tigers are still among the finest defensive units around.

Coach John Lincoln Mason is "a very tough coach" says his players but, through the years, he has managed to get the absolute best out of them.

Hats off to coach Mason. He is doing a whale of a job.

Letter From The Editor:

Vara D. Allen

If the mind can perceive it the body can achieve it.

To all new and returning students, I hope you are enjoying your school year. We are now well into our Fall Quarter and some of us still have not quite figured out why we are here. "Savannah State ain't about nothing and it's boring" or "Man, this is a shabby school, I'm transferring." Okay, so you do not like what the school is doing for you. You feel cheated because you paid your money and they don't have concerts once a month. You deserve to have a pack jam every weekend, right? Well before you jump to all kinds of conclusions, I think you had better take an indepth look at yourselves. Savannah State is YOU! You make the decisions, if you vote. You make the changes and improvements, if you get involved! Nothing can be accomplished if we continue to wait for the other man to do it. Savannah State has, this quarter alone, had several culturally enriching programs. How many did you attend? If you didn't attend any, why? The excuse that you didn't know about it has played out. By the time you get to college you can supposedly read, and there are signs up everywhere.

Along this same line we should remember that we can have fun without being obnoxious and rude. "When someone has the guts to perform before an audience for SSC students, they should be given a gold medal.

Let's not fall into the category of being this type of student. Savannah State can flourish if we help it. We have a beautiful campus and beautiful people, so why not take advantage of it and improve our school?

CONGRATULATIONS FOR A JOB WELL DONE!

We believe the children are our future, Teach them well and let them lead the way.

Show them all the beauty they possess inside, Give them a sense of pride to make it easier. Let the children's laughter remind us of how we used to be.

Everybody's searching for a hero. People need someone to look up to. I never found anyone who fulfilled my needs.
A lonely place to be so I learned to depend on me.

I decided long ago never to walk in anyone's shadow. If I fail, If I succeed, at least I have lived as I have believed.
No matter what they take from me, they can't take away my dignity, because the greatest love of all happening to me.

I have found the greatest love of all inside of me. The greatest love of all isn't easy to achieve. Learning to love yourself is the greatest love of all.

And if I chance that special thing that you have been dreaming of leads you too, alone to a place for the strength in love.

The Greatest

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Through the years at Savannah State College; especially as Editor-in-Chief of the TIGER YEARBOOK, my words alone can not be expressed. I have called upon Maltbie Davenport Babcock to summarize my feelings which are best expressed with his poem "Be Strong".

"Be Strong"

*Be Strong!
We are not here to play, to dream, to drift;
We have hard work to do, and loads to lift;
Shun not the struggle—face it; 'tis God's gift.*

*Be Strong!
Say not, "The days are evil. Who's to blame?"
And fold the hands and acquiesce—oh shame!
Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God's name.*

*Be Strong!
It matters not how deep intrenched the wrong,
How hard the battle goes, the day how long;
Faint not—fight on! To-morrow comes the song.*

Maltbie Davenport Babcock
